A GOOD SUGGESTION

Editor Ledger—I stood at the corner of Market and Second streets Saturday morning and listened to some nice music from the Maysville Blue Grass Band and was surprised when I found I was the only one to applaud. I asked the leader if "Marching Through Georgia" was out of date and he replied no and immediately favored us. I would suggest you encourage the boys by applause which is certainly always deserved. A VISITOR.

SCHOOL OPENED

The Washington School opened this morning in the old building in that district. The new building will not be ready for school purposes until about the middle of November. Work is going on nicely in it now. The formal dedication of the school will be announced later.

THE BEST MALE QUARTETTE

Joe Coburns Big Minstrels always bring to Maysville a cracker jack attraction with old time features and up to the minute clean enjoyable novelties delightfully intermingled in a real minstrel melange which never disappoints their patrons. One feature that never grows old is the male quartette when its a good one. The Ragapation Minstrel Four this year is the best they have ever carried. Lester Lucas the well known Basso, Clyde E. Clifford who possesses a magnificent robust baritone with dramatic ability to display it, Perce Dilcher robust lead tenor and Earl Rowland first or top tenor comprise a real quartette that is one of the really enjoyable numbers of the show. Don't miss them tonight at the Washington Opera House. Each are soloists and appear singly in the American Hunt Club in India first part. Mr. Lucas as the Rajah renders two new members, "The Port of Missing Ship-Down Deep in a Submarine," as only Lucas can sing. Clifford, "Will-O-The Wisp" and encore, are splendid numbers, while Dilcher and Rowlands sentimental selections are beautifully rendered.

SURPRISED HIS FRIENDS

Popular Dan Hardy of Lagrange, N. C., who was auctioneer at the Growers Warehouse in this city last year, will be back this season, but—Dan will not be the same old Dan he was last year with the boys. On last Saturday, according to the best hope, he hid himself to Hymen's Altar and took unto himself a nine-tenths, he being married to Miss Cottle Williamson at her home in Washington, N. C. Mr. and Mrs. Hardy will spend a brief honeymoon among relatives and friends in the South, and will then come to Maysville, and maybe you think Dan's friends won't give him the seventy-seventh degree when he arrives.

PULLS OFF BIG DEAL

Through his agent, Thomas L. Ewan & Co., of this city, Mr. M. M. Rhodes of Elizaville, sold last week his entire stock of merchandise and good will to Mr. W. S. Tomlin of Aberdeen, Ohio, formerly of this city. This is one of the largest stock of goods and one of the best known stores in Fleming county. Mr. Tomlin will take over his purchase November 1st.

STANLEY ADAMS WILL SING

Master Stanley Adams will sing every night this week at the Pastime. The picture program for today is "The Surprise of an Empty Hotel," a Vitagraph four-part drama, featuring Charles Richman and a splendid cast. A good comedy will also be shown.

GRANTED LICENSE

Mr. James D. Riggs, 22, and Miss Leah M. Yazel, 20, both of this city, were granted a license to wed by County Clerk J. J. Owens Saturday.

At the British music convention, which recently was held at Harrogate, one of the chief objects was to devise means whereby Germans will be ousted from the musical trade in England.

A large number of Irish rebel prisoners have been sent to Internment camps in France. They are to be used for road making and for other useful work in the rear of the lines.

Wanted immediately—several hundred ladies, young or old, with pimples, blackheads, nasty complexions, shallow cheeks, dull eyes, colorless lips, to take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. You want to be charming, beautiful and sweet; then without fail start at once.—J. J. Wood & Son.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian Church will meet Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the church. All members are urged to be present.

Mismanaged Estates

When you select an individual as your Executor your Estate may be mismanaged. There are a very large number of instances of estates being looted and mismanaged by individual executors. An individual often yields to temptation. If the money is lost it is frequently gone for ever, and the loss falls upon your Estate. You can avoid these risks by the appointment of our Bank. May we talk the matter over with you?
